

Please Watch Video 6 Then Answer These Questions

What are the results the reader will get from taking the actions you are outlining in this book?

---

---

---

What action can the reader do right now today?

---

---

---

What one to five tips (maximum) will get them from where they are to this?

---

---

---

What is an action they could put the book down and take action on right now?

---

---

---

What is the practical advice that you can give them that they can take action on?

---

---

---

What is the step by step program to go from here to there?

---

---

---

What action can the reader take without contacting you?

---

---

---

What action should the reader contact you to get help taking?

---

---

---

Is there a link for/to this action?

---

---

---

Keep in mind actions are EVERYTHING! Your book is the beginning of the conversation. The actions in your book are the beginning of the readers engagement with you.

Before Concluding This Worksheet, Ask Yourself These Questions!

After reading the book does the reader know what they can do today? And What action they should take immediately?

Is your action for now – is it immediately actionable?

Have you been vulnerable in what you are sharing?

Does the action lead to deeper connection between you and the reader?

Does the action lead to the part of your business you are focused on?

Are you ready to take action with the reader who has completed this book?